that feels both authentic and eye-catching. Introducing a dual-sheet method—an opaque base paired with a translucent overlay—injects depth while still using basic supplies. The base is cut from sturdy cardstock; the overlay, printed on clear acetate, contains the ghost's inner glow pattern. When backlit by a modest LED strip, the ghost appears to hover, echoing the floating specter in the official Snargl illustration. Print the same outline on clear acetate, adding a faint gradient where the eyes and mouth sit. Trim both layers, then adhere the acetate to the cardboard with double-sided tape, leaving a thin air gap. Position a battery-powered LED strip behind the assembly and secure with zip ties.
