You will learn How To Fill Out 2553 Form. To fill out IRS In this video I show you how to prepare and Form 2553 lets an eligible LLC or corporation elect S corp status, but the IRS expects the election to be filed by March 15 of the tax year. Miss the deadline, and the entity may lose the tax advantage for that year. Fortunately, the IRS provides a limited "relief for late election" pathway, and a handful of practical steps can still rescue the election if you act quickly. The S corp election changes how income is taxed: instead of corporate tax, profits flow through to shareholders' personal returns. If the election isn't on time, the entity is treated as a C corporation by default, triggering double taxation and potentially higher tax bills. Moreover, once the year ends, the IRS generally won't retroactively apply an S status without an approved relief request. Busy owners often mistake timing, especially when the entity is newly formed or when the
